RENTING SET OR PROPS PACKAGES

When you decide to rent scenery from Crane River Theater, we work with you throughout the entire process; from the initial inquiry to the return of the items and the refund of your security deposit.

Renting scenery/props is quite a commitment of time, energy, and organizational skills. Renting scenery saves customers a lot of time because you don't have to buy or build your production from scratch. However, there is still work to be done. Preparing the stage and being aware of your measurements and space for load-in and assembly, as well as the storage space for scenery that may be on wheels and need to leave the stage.

RENTAL AGREEMENT

Once you have agreed to rent from us, we email you a rental agreement and an invoice of the final rental charges. We highly encourage customers to read through the entire agreement, this information will explain how to get back your full security deposit. The Customer will provide an agent's certificate of insurance, insuring only those items rented from Crane River Theater.

SECURING YOUR RENTAL DATES

In order to secure the dates of your rental, the signed rental agreement and refundable security deposit must be returned by the due date on the rental agreement, which is usually about 2-3 weeks after you've agreed to book a rental.

WHAT TO EXPECT AFTER YOU'VE BOOKED

We begin prepping the rental once we receive the final payment. We will deliver the set and props you are renting on an agreed upon load in date for your venue. A load out date will also be communicated prior to load in so it will all be listed on a final agreement.

RENTAL CARE DURING YOUR PRODUCTION

During the run of your production, please be very cautious with the speed and precision of scene changes for the safety of actors and scenery. Crane River Theater cannot be held liable for any injuries, accidents, or damage that occur during your rental period. Note that any damage to the scenery considered to be permanent damage will result in being charged for a full replacement. No alterations to any scenery or props are allowed.

If you have any questions regarding a set or prop rental, please call 308.627.5796 or email info@cranerivertheater.org.
